Lee County Slandered.

Some fellow last week up in Lee county presumably felt personally aggrieved at some of the oil operators, because they had not treated him right and is supposed to have blown up an oil tank. The Lexington chamber of commerce took the matter up and went to a sensible Legislature to have a State Police law established for the state, very perceptibly acting in counsel of the oil men's association. The Lee county authorities are working on the case and will most likely apprehend the offender in a very few days. At least as soon as the Fayette authorities are in the habit of running down their cold blooded murders of farmers, who are so precious to the Government in its time of stress. And possibly, too, as soon as the Kenton county authorities will apprehend the Germans who poisoned 400 horses over there.

If this well had been blown up in the more popular parts of the state, it would have been credited to the Germans. It is either mountaineers or Germans that do the devilment, according to foreign oil men and the Lexington papers, respectively.

In behalf of our neighbor, Lee county, we say shame on you. Remember this county is but one of the two in the state that furnished more than her quota of volunteers. No draft being needed at all when the law first went into effect. Now you come back and manufacture falsehoods to slander this noble county which has not one-tenth the law violators in her confines that there are in the city of Lexington. But we shall not bite ourselves with venom upon the provocation of slanderous reports, but continue to set for the thinking people of the state a lesson in morals, decency and a lead in the obedience of the laws of our state and nation.

Powell Raised One Million.

Powell County has had its assessment raised by the Tax Commission one million dollars, and directs that this raise be made up on oil and mineral rights principally. The raise seems wholly justifiable. The only thing to bother the Board of supervisors has been the manner of assessing these rights. The plan has been arrived at. Where the owners of such oil and mineral rights fail to assess the same, the rights are to be valued by the Board of supervisors as separate and apart from the land, and if payment is not made in due time, these rights are to be sold for tax as other property is now sold. So owners of leases had better appear before the Board and straighten matters.

Circuit Court Convened.

Circuit Court convened at Stanton Monday with Judge Shackelford presiding and Commonwealth Attorney, B. A. Crutcher, on hand to prosecute the law violators.

Judge Shackelford's charge to the grand jury was timely and patient. He counseled the necessity of winning this great war. He also paid his respects to the jury slacker, but said this habit was not so bad in Powell as other counties of the district.

Court adjourned Wednesday to reconvene Monday.

Raise More Poultry.

In the increased production of other products we must not forget the poultry. More poultry must be raised on every farm in Powell County this year than ever before, and to this end the Powell County Deposit Bank has agreed to put up $150.00 for which amount they are buying these pure bred eggs and selling them to the Boys' and Girls' Agri. Clubs and the parents at $1.00 per setting of 15 eggs, or at cost. This is a great opportunity to get these eggs at a price like this, and you can not afford to miss this chance. These eggs come from flocks of hens that have been inspected by the State men and must come up to a certain standard before the breeders are allowed to sell them.

Fill out the coupon below and mail to your County Agent or Powell County Deposit Bank, Stanton, Ky. stating the number of settings you want and the date you will call for same. These eggs will be in Stanton on Saturday of each week until they are all gone, so send in your order at once giving the number of settings you want and the date you will be there for them so they can be saved for you.

The first shipment will be ready for distribution Saturday Mar. 30th. Dear Sir:—Please enter my name on your list for..... settings of pure bred Rhode Island Eggs at $1.00 per setting. I will call for them on Sat.....1918.

Another Good Well at Stanton.

A fine oil well was drilled in on John W. William's farm at Stanton Monday. While it has not been pumped it is said by experts to be good for fifty barrels per day. The hole is but little more than 200 feet deep and the quality of the oil is the best. As a result of this finding, activity in leasing has resumed. More wells will be put down. Drilling will also soon be started up on Hardwick's Creek where the Clark well over flowed last winter. The outlook for an oil boom at Clay City and Stanton this spring is very promising. We welcome them.

Cutting Third Set at Fifty Four.

Mrs. Resena Meadows, who is here from Lexington on a visit, is getting back into childhood again as she is cutting her third set of teeth, though being fifty four years old. Up to the present time there has appeared three of the thirty six which completes the "chops" in full.

Nice Present for Soldier Boy.

J. M. Eastling, one of Powell's boys at Camp Taylor returned last week to visit his wife who is living with her father, Mr. F. G. Powell. While here on Tuesday morning Mrs. Eastling presented her soldier husband with a fine little lady.

Relatives here have been advised of the serious illness of George W. Conlee at his home near Richmond. He has appendicitis and may have to undergo an operation.

Too Late For Publication.

We received a very valuable article from President J. Kelly Giffen of Stanton College, but it was received too late for publication this week, but will appear in our next issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson, who have been living in Cincinnati for the past several months, are moving back this week to Hardwick's Creek.

Henry Stepp and Mrs. Stepp returned from Dayton, Ohio, and will farm here this year. We are glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Stepp in the old county.

Mrs. Richard Crowe returned this past week from Knoxville, Tenn., where she visited her parents for several weeks.

The wedding bells are going to ring for a fine young couple very soon. No need to ask who they are for that is a secret.

Jim Patrick has been under the doctor's care the past week but he will get out and see what's going on in the outside world.

Misses Alice Childs and Alberta McBride visited Friday night in Clay City and Miss Childs went on to Lexington the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cowgill and baby and Miss Bessie Hardwick are visiting home folks at Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hardwick's for two or three weeks.

H. H. Harrison and Dudley Caudill are going over the county warning the people of the corn situation and giving demonstrations of testing seed corn.

Dave Baker was in Lexington this past week on business. In fact Dave is so many places looking after his oil business that we can't keep up with him.

Dr. Johnson was called to South Fork to see Uncle Jonathan Boyd who is quite sick. Mr. Boyd is one of Powell county's most respected citizens and is way up in years.

A congregational meeting will be held in the United Presbyterian Church next Saturday evening to decide upon some important matters in connection with the Church.

Bill Johnson is home from West Virginia this week. The flood in that section of the country closed out all work for a few days, and he took advantage to be at home with his family.

The blacksmith shop erected by Charley Sparks and Robert Stamper is ready for work as soon as tools all arrive. Robert Stamper will be the smith who will wield the hammer on the anvil.

Twin babies were born to Mr.

and Mrs. Bill Anderson on Morris Creek and are quite a wonder. One weighed 1½ pounds and the other 2½ pounds. Both are living and now weigh five pounds.

Mrs. J. L. Oldham, who has been sick for some time in the hospital at Lexington, returned to her home at Wolfe Coal Saturday. She stopped off in Stanton Friday night and visited home folks.

An oil well was struck on John W. William's farm Monday of this week and is said to be a fifty barrel well. This makes two good wells right in Stanton and we hope that there may be many others found.

Jesse Chaney is now over somewhere near France on the battleship Dixie and giving a good account of himself. Jesse is doing a fine thing by his mother and father, he is sending them $20 a month out of his wages.

Marion Atkinson, who is stationed at Ft. Ordlethop, Ga., has been promoted from an assistant clerk in the bookkeeping department to a place as chief clerk. Stanton boys always make good wherever you put them.

Rev. Ray Shearer, of Putnam, N. Y. arrived last Thursday for his month's vacation. He was accompanied by his cousin, Mr. Smith, who is spending a week here before he joins the army. Mrs. Shearer and baby have been here for some weeks.

Circuit Court is in session this week with Judge Shackelford on the bench and Commonwealth Crutcher. The first case tried was that of Mr. Abney killing Hal Ballard on Hardwick's Creek last fall. Mr. Abney was given 20 years in the penitentiary.

Rev. Joe Kinkaid, of St. Helens, will preach at the Christian Church this coming Saturday night and Sunday and also at night. Everybody is welcome. There will be no services at the Presbyterian Church Sunday night and this arrangement will continue in the future.

Mrs. J. W. Baker stopped off in Stanton Monday and visited with Henry Daniel's folks. She was returning from the funeral of Ben Derickson who died March 10th at Salt Lick. He was the one who married Mrs. Lillie Barnes, a former student of Stanton College.

Rev. J. Kelly Giffen returned last Friday from Pittsburgh, Pa., where he met with his church Board. Elsewhere we speak of their voting for the new dormitory. On his way home he brought Mrs. Giffen's mother, Mrs. Lorimer, of New Concord, Ohio. She will spend the spring here.

Grant Hanks, of Bourbon county, was here on business this week. He is thinking something of locating his family in Stanton, having been offered a good price for his store and home. We should be very glad to have him come. Plenty of room in Stanton for good people, but no room for the other kind.

Well, well, they say that there was a splendid crowd out to Church and Sunday School the past Sunday. Glad to hear it. Keep it up and you will never regret it. Get the habit of going to the house of God every Sunday and it will do you good. It should not be only a habit but a privilege and duty to be there. The Sunday School needs you, the Church needs you and God needs you so bad to help build up his work he left for you and for me to do here.

THE TIMES.

Entered as second-class mail matter at the Post Office at Clay City, Ky., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

A HOME-MADE PAPER.

THURSDAY, MARCH 21, 1918.

SUBSCRIPTION RATE,
ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

Hoard's Dairyman, the leading dairy paper in the United States, has this to say of barley:

"After an experience of twenty years in raising barley, it seems astounding to us that so few farmers produce this valuable grain. There are many points of advantage in its favor.

"It is the finest grain feed for cows, will produce more milk per 100 pounds of any grain we know of. It is much superior to corn in a combination with oats.

"As feed for pigs, ground barley will make as much weight or more if the pigs are young than corn. We know of no grain that is finer for young pigs than ground barley mixed with skim milk and a little oil meal. Fed to older hogs it comes within a fraction, pound for pound, of producing as much pork as corn."

Now here we have it. Barley the best feed for both dairy and pork, reported so by the leading national dairy journal. This country produces yearly about one hundred millions of bushels of barley. But what do we do with what we do raise, feed it to stock? No. We brew it into beer to make profit from those who drink it and put into the hands of the operators most of whom are Germans.

Evidently one would think, then, that we do not need it for feed. But not so. Our Government is calling upon the farmers to produce more dairy products and more pork. They also call upon the consumers to cut down the use of pork, and has designated one whole day to do without it, and several other meals in other days.

Herbert Hoover tells us that barley makes as good bread when ground and mixed with wheat products as all wheat flour.

Hoard's Dairyman tells us that barley is the best cow and hog feed.

The Government tells us that food will win the war.

The Government therefore tells us that as a saving to eat no wheat 11 out of 21 meals.

It tells us to eat no pork all of one day in the week.

It tells us to eat no meat 9 meals out of 21 to effect a saving.

The people by thousands are complying with these requests—Amen.

The brewers consume millions of bushels of barley into beer. But where or when has the Government called upon them to stop making beer to save food that we may win the war?

No man any where can buy more than 48 pounds of flour at a time, then only after having procured an equal amount of other substitutes, this all in order to save the wheat.

But any man any where they sell it can buy as much beer as they want without buying any food products at all.

We are not required to save grain to win the war when that grain is made into beer.

We are required to save grain to win the war when that grain is made into food products. And to this—Amen.

Food products sustain life; drink products destroys the essence of life.

Lloyd George says, we are fighting three formidable allies.—Germany, Austria and drink, but the greatest of these three is drink.

The same bodies that authorize war can with one stroke of the pen win over the enemy of drink.

It has taken and will take years of desperate effort to win over the other two enemies with the sword.

Germany found in the beginning she had four desperate enemies, England, Russia, France and drink. She struck the pen that defeated drink, the worst of her enemies. She has had remarkable success.

How long, oh how long will it be until the allies will legislate away their greatest enemy—Drink?

Every citizen of this nation should rigidly observe the spirit of the wheatless, meatless and porkless days. As a further duty they should insist upon the Food Administration to see that the spirit of saving be extended to our drinking as well as our eating, and see that there are instituted beerless, and saloonless days, as well as the other less days. Why should nourishing food which enables us to do constructive work, be limited and at the same time place no limitation at all upon intoxicating liquors which blunts our minds and not only prohibits us from properly performing the labor so essential at this time, but induces the users thereof to perform deeds of the most destructive character.

Herbert C. Hoover, National Food Administrator, appeals to farmers everywhere to sell any wheat they may be holding as the supply is very short this year. A number of flour mills have been forced to close down for the want of wheat. The flour situation is destined to grow very serious before harvest time.

The Bradford Oil & Gas Company, of Bradford, Pa., advises the Times that it will re-enter the field to participate in the development of the territory. Let them come. The more the merrier.

Swift & Company Publicity

At a recent hearing of the Federal Trade Commission there was introduced correspondence taken from the private files of Swift & Company, which showed that the Company had been considering for some time an educational advertising campaign.

The need for this publicity has been apparent to us for several years. The gross misrepresentation to which we have recently been subjected has convinced us that we should no longer delay in putting before the public the basic facts of our business, relying on the fair-mindedness of the American people.

The feeling against the American packer is based largely on the belief that the income and well-being of the producer and consumer are adversely affected by the packers' operations, resulting in unreasonably large profits.

Swift & Company's net profit is reasonable, and represents an insignificant factor in the cost of living.

For the fiscal year 1917 the total sales and net profit of Swift & Company were as follows:

Sales
$875,000,000.

Profits
$34,650,000.

This is equivalent to a $3,465. profit on a business of $87,500.

If Swift & Company had made no profit at all, the cattle raiser would have received only one-eighth of a cent per pound more for his cattle, or the consumer would have saved only one-quarter of a cent per pound on dressed beef.

Andrew Chaney, of Ravenna, was a caller here one day last week.

Mrs. Roy Scott and Mrs. Chas. Wright, of Nada, visited Mrs. Ford here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pasley visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Wise in the oil field last week.

Mrs. Clarinda Spencer, of Alvin, Wis., is visiting her old neighbors and friends here this week.

Mrs. Susan Ewen of this place has another Star added to her service pin or button. Carlin R. Ewen has enlisted in navy and is now in training at the Great Lakes, Illinois. This is two sons in service for her.

Jesse Brown, of Finwick, is visiting friends and relatives here and wanting men to work on section, but there are no idle men here. The band mill, at Nada; refinery at Hood's Branch and oil fields just across the hill, affords plenty of work for every one wanting to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Elija Boyd, of Barker, have three sons in service. Two in naval training school in Va., and one at Camp Zachary Taylor. This is very trying for parents, but they should be proud of sons volunteering to save our country from such hands as the brutish inhuman despised Germans. We should pray for our boys to live clean christian lives.

W. F. Chester was called from Torrent to attend burial of his little grandson, Paul Ewen. Mr. Chester is delighted with the good prospects for state wide prohibition; says he has voted the prohibition ticket for 40 years and would win yet after losing so many votes. While a citizen of Powell county he was approached by a candidate asking him if he would take a drink with him? He said no sir I do not drink it, and further more I wont vote for a man that carries it either. If all voters would give such replies we would have more decent elections.

Hearts and homes were saddened here Wednesday by receiving a message announcing the death of little Paul Ewen, age 3 yrs. 6 months. Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ewen, of Thornton, Letcher Co., Ky. The little fellow's gown ignited from an open grate and owing to his constitution being weak from an attack of typhoid fever, he quickly sank from the shock, and the fond parents saw that death was inev.

itable. The mother's arm was badly burned in trying to extinguish the flames. The gown was of light material and the little fellows burns would have probably not been so severe but owing to crocheted lace around the neck it could not be easily torn from the little body. Many friends and relatives here join in sympathy with the bereaved parents and family. The devotion shown by the little sister and brothers will long be remembered by those present. Kelly age 6 yrs. pleaded to take the little brother back home and not leave him here and when told by the father and relatives he must stay here and that his little brother was an angel and happy. He said we will see him again if we are good but it will be a long time. We hope the sermon preached from those tender lips will reach the hearts of mature age. "That we will meet again if we are good." The blessed words of our Savior is very comforting in the death of our little ones. When he said, "suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of heaven," and "unless you become as a little child, you can no wise enter in." The body was brought to Nada and buried in the local cemetery. The family returned home Friday.

Vergil Hall is here from Middletown, O., on a visit.

Come again Mr. V. G. M. from Genet; we got a good laugh from reading about Mr. g. hog and his "shadder."

Mrs. H. M. Curtis is recovering from an attack of german measles; the germans were very severe in this particular case.

Joe Hardy, who is employed as a teamster, in the Pilot oil field, spent from Saturday till Monday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Hardy.

Charley Hardman, formerly oil driller for B. A. Bonieville, has returned. It is supposed his employer W. S. Collier will resume operations, along Hardwic's Creek in the near future.

LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD

Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved
After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.

Meadorsville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia

Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me, my appetite was gone. I was very weak."

I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial. It acted exactly as was highly recommended. I felt much better after a couple of days. My bowels improved and I began to eat again.

"The Proper Tonic When Coughs Are Chronic."

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND

"HAWKING" and spitting, with or without a hacking cough, not only disturbs and disgusts bystanders, but weakens and wears down the system of the sufferer so that the way is made easy for more serious sickness.

It isn't "smart" to neglect a cold. On the contrary, it is downright foolish. It may sound quite bold and strong to say, "I don't believe in medicine or doctors," or "I never bother with a cold"—but just watch carefully the result of such practices. You hear the boasting and bragging man, "The cold went away," but you don't always hear the regret and sorrow when the cold stays and does its worst.

Let common sense, intelligence and experience be your guide. Act promptly to check any cold, no matter how slight. Stop any cough as soon as you can. "It's better to be safe than sorry," is an old and true saying. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound loosens the phlegm and mucus, clears the passages, coats the inflamed and irritated membranes with a healing and soothing medicine, eases the hoarseness, stops tickling in the throat and enables you to enjoy refreshing, restful sleep. It contains no opiates and is pleasant to take. Good for children as well as adults.

Relieved thousands of cases of spasmodic croup and whooping cough. In 25c, 50c and $1.00 sizes.

The Farmers' Opportunity.

WHEN we consider that 61 per cent. of the whole population of this Country lives in cities, we can understand the need of an increase in food products, which come chiefly from the farms. It is an urgent call. It is a call upon the patriotism of every farmer, farm hand and land owner. Every acre should produce its quota of food products. The time to plant for this result is at hand. No delay can be allowed. Plant big acreage. Plan for a big yield. Work for a bumper crop. Prices will be good. The Country's need is the farmers' opportunity.

BADLY RUN DOWN.

"I had become greatly run down and my nerves were in terrible condition. I had frequent headaches and became very weak and was unable to do anything. I bought a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. I soon began to feel better, my nerves were quieted. I recovered my strength, and have since recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine to many of my friends who have used it with satisfactory results."
